

Lesson 2- Our Relationship with Allah

Daily Reflective Journal

The purpose of this daily reflection is to help you establish your unique connection with Allah.

Your Task: Everyday come up with at least one way that you can communicate with Allah for a week. Record your daily reflection using the chart below. Alternatively, you may use a notebook to write your daily communication with Allah.

Some ideas for the type of communication you can have with Allah can include:

- asking for forgiveness
- praying for someone
- asking for forgiveness of sins
- expressing thankfulness for the blessings that Allah has given

Date	Type of Communication	Any Other Details About the Communication
_____	_____	_____ _____
_____	_____	_____ _____
_____	_____	_____ _____
_____	_____	_____ _____
_____	_____	_____ _____
_____	_____	_____ _____
_____	_____	_____ _____

Teacher at Al-Awwal Arabic School

You have been selected to be a teacher at Al-Awwal Arabic School. Your class has just completed involving being able to translate Arabic words into English words.

Your Task: Based on the key terms that you learned in the lesson mark the test that was completed by one of the students. Place a check mark if the student achieved the correct answer to the question and place an "X" next to the answer if a student answered the question incorrectly.

True and False Quiz

Name: Hassan

Underline true or false for each of the 7 statements that are shown in each of the questions.

- 1) The Arabic word "ubdiyyah" means worship. True or False
- 2) The Arabic word "ma'rifah" means hope. True or False
- 3) The Arabic word "faqr" means need/poverty. True or False
- 4) The Arabic word "liqa allah" means forgiving others. True or False
- 5) The Arabic word "raja" means worship. True or False
- 6) The Arabic word "al-Awwal" means the Last. True or False
- 7) The Arabic word "al-Akhir" means the Last. True or False

Total /7

As the teacher in the class, you may also want to include a grade and comment for Hassan based on his performance on the test.

DON'T FORGET!

For every incorrect that Hassan receives on the test write what the correct answer should be.

Answers to the True and False Quiz

- 1) The Arabic word "ubudiyah" means worship. True or False
- 2) The Arabic word "ma'rifah" means hope. True or False the correct meaning is recognition
- 3) The Arabic word "faqr" means need/poverty. True or False
- 4) The Arabic word "liqa allah" means forgiving others. True or False the correct meaning is meeting with Allah
- 5) The Arabic word "raja" means worship. True or False the correct meaning is hope
- 6) The Arabic word "al-Awwal" means the Last. True or False the correct meaning the First
- 7) The Arabic word "al-Akhir" means the Last. True or False

In total, Hassan received 4 out 7 on the test.