

Shaytan's Promise

---

Shaytan has promised Allah that he will misguide human beings.

Activity - Do we want to be the ones that please Allah or please Shaytan.

You will need:

A pair of scissors for each student

A jar for each student

A copy of the work sheet below

1. In the work sheet below, write down the things that you feel will please Allah, and the things you feel will please shaytan.
2. Cut them out
3. The things that will please Allah can be folded and put into the jar and the things that please shaytan can be cut up into little pieces and either recycled or buried in the ground

Discussion

Our aim is to always please Allah no matter what. Shaytan will whisper things to us and try and make us do bad things but we should always cut up those thoughts and bury them away.

You can keep the jar at home and keep adding to it things that you have done to please Allah, or things that you intend to do. After a few months, open up the jar and read your notes, it will InshaAllah inspire you to continue pleasing Allah.
