

Fill in the blanks

Salaah al-Jumu'ah must be prayed in _____.

With atleast _____ people present at its beginning.

_____ sermons must be delivered before the salah in which the imam must _____ and _____ the congregation.

The _____ Imam must lead salat al-jumu'ah.

The distance between two places in which salat al-jumu'ah takes place should not be less than _____ miles.

A person must join the salah before the _____ of the _____ rak'ah.

If he joins in the _____ of the _____ rak'ah, he should perform the _____ salah as a precaution.

It is makruh to _____ while the imam delivers the _____.

If the noise created by _____ prevents others from _____ to the sermon, then it is _____ based on _____ precaution.

As an obligatory precaution, it is _____ to listen to _____ the sermons.

However, _____ to the sermons is not _____ upon those who do not understand their _____.

It is not obligatory for a person wishing to _____ salat al-jumu'ah to be _____ while the imam is _____ the sermons.

Whenever salat al-jumu'ah takes place with all its conditions _____, if the one establishing it is the infallible Imam [Mahdi (a)] or his specific _____, it is _____ to attend it; otherwise, it is not _____.

Salaah al-Jumu'ah has a _____ dimension.

Friday is the most _____ day of the week for Muslims. Friday is especially linked to _____.

Salat al-jumu'ah consists of two _____ and a _____ rak'ah salah; this takes the place of _____ salah.

Rasulullah (s) waited for threed days in town of _____, for _____ to join him. Together, they set off and entered Medina on a _____.

It is narrated that Prophet (s) offered the first salat al-jumu'ah with his companions on that day, in the area of the _____. He recited two _____ the first was about adopting _____, and the second was to prepare them _____ for the first Islamic _____. These _____ sermons had a deep impression on the hearts of the people.