

Understanding Tawhid & Shirk

Which is the greatest sin? Is it forgivable? Quote a verse with regards to this sin.

If someone feels secure that as long as their employer is happy with them, their income/Rizq is secure? is this right? how would you explain?

How would you explain to someone that Allah's beautiful names are not parts of Him or separate from Him. Rather they are His very being (His essence). explain with an example?

what is true tawhid? what kind of realization should we have?

what helps prove there is only one God? what would happen in the universe if there was more than one god?

when a mum and dad really love their child, are they doing shirk? explain (hint: remember the story when bibi zaynab was small she asked her father Imam Ali as to how he can have two loves in one heart")

How would you explain to someone that yes we have free will but Allah is still in control?
