DON'T FORGET!

When providing your point of views try to include Hadiths and Qur'anic ayahs in your answers.

Debate

You and your Muslim friend decide to participate in a debate with each other. Provide your point of view for the different issues you debate about in the situations.

Situation 1: Circumstances when Iblis Cried Out

Your friend believes that there were never times in history when Iblis cried out. Provide your point of view for the statement made by your friend.

Situation 2: Fast

Your friend believes that apart from the month of Ramadhan there are no other times when it is recommended to fast. Provide your point of view on the statement made by your friend.

Situation 3: Recommended acts during Eid-al-Ghadeer

Your friend believes that on Eid-al-Ghadeer there are no recommended acts to be done on this day and believes that the only acts that a person should engage in is eating cake and receiving presents. Provide your point of view on the statements made by your friend.

Organizing the Information Learnt in the Lesson

Graphic organizers are useful for organizing information and summarizing the key points into an organizer that visually shows the information. Organize the information learned in the chapter by placing it in the correct section of the organizer. Write at least 3 points in each of the sections that you feel are the most important.
