

M1-D3 Being content with Allah's Blessings.

Quick review flash cards /questions

What does conviction mean in Arabic?

- a) Qanaa
- b) Yakin
- c) Tawakkul

What is Yakin?

- a) contentment
- b) Conviction in Al—h
- c) Being grateful

What does Ridha or Qana'ah mean?

- a) greed
- b) trust
- c) Contentment

What does trust mean in Arabic?

- a) qanaah
- b) yakin
- c) tawakkul

What is greed?

- a) To always want more
- b) To work hard for your needs
- c) Stop worrying

What is contentment?

- d) Never being happy with what you have
- e) Being satisfied with what you have
- f) Not working hard for your needs

What is the Arabic word for greed?

- a) Qanaa
- b) Hirs
- c) tawakul

Verse 17 of Sura Hujarat (49) talks about the greatest blessing that Al—h has given us which is?

- a) He has given us healthy body
- b) Our thinking power
- c) Guided us to our religion Islam

In Sura Baqara (2) verse 245 what is Al—h going to multiply and give great reward for?

- a) For being content with what He gives
- b) For giving goodly loan (qard al-hasanah)
- c) For being kind to others

What is qard al-hasanah

- a) A goodly loan
- b) Debt
- c) wealth

Imam Musa Kadhim (a) compares the love of the dunya to _____. He says that “the dunya is like _____, the more you drink the thirstier you become”, until it kills you. What is he comparing the dunya to?

- a) Greed
- b) Seawater
- c) Dirty water

Imam Ja’far as-Sadiq (a) told Abubasir (as part of the long hadith...) “When you feel greed for the world remember ...”

- a) Your blessings
- b) Your death and loneliness in the grave
- c) The heat of the hell fire

The Prophet (S) has said:

Two greedy persons are never satisfied: those greedy for _____ and those greedy for _____.

- a) Health and happiness
- b) Knowledge and wealth
- c) Dunya and material things

Imam Ali (a) has also said:

The most thankful of people is the most?

- a) Happy
- b) Content
- c) Generous

Greed causes

- a) Joy and happiness
- b) Humiliation and weakness
- c) Fulfills wants and desires

Root cause of Greed is

- a) Love of dunya and material world
- b) Love of others
- c) Self-love

Contentment can be achieved by

- a) Relaxing and doing yoga
- b) Being grateful and sharing
- c) Working hard

A greedy person likes to

- a) Play sports
- b) Meditate
- c) Hoard things

When trying to reach our goals in life we should

- a) Work hard till we exhaust ourselves
- b) Be balanced and moderate in everything
- c) Work little and pray to A—h to give us more

The highest form of contentment is when

- a) I logically with my mind understand things happen for a reason but I don’t feel its fair
- b) I understand everything happens for a reason, my heart accepts, I feel certain and trust that Al—h knows best
- c) I think the reason for things going wrong is my own fault and I have to try harder so things don’t go wrong

