

CROSSWORD PUZZLE

Down

1. A theory that says an explosion from a 'singularity' created the universe. Prior to that moment, there was nothing.
2. In Surah Hajj verse 47 – Allah mentions that the day can be like a _____ years (look up the verse in the Quran)

3. The brightness of the stars we see, has taken a long time to travel across space to reach our eyes. This brightness is called? _____. (once you know the answer look up the definition of this answer in the web or dictionary)
4. There are probably more _____ in the existence than grains of sand in all of the earth's beaches.
5. Fred Hoyle described for random events to produce even a single _____ is so improbable, let alone the entire universe.
6. He shows you His _____. So which of the _____ of Allah will you deny?
7. Allah has describe d the creation of the heavens and the earth and has asked us to _____ upon them for a reason.
8. It is He who is the creator of entire _____
9. If there is a creation then there must also therefore be a _____
10. Edwin Hubble- universe is constantly _____
11. Many theories might have some merit but they nearly all fail to answer the fundamental question of what _____ existence in the first place!
17. The _____ are also moving apart, Allah explains this in Sura 79:30

Down

1. The ninth brightest star in the night sky
4. In 21:30 – Allah explains that everything was once joined together and then He _____ them apart.
12. One who does not copy previous examples, The _____ is He of the heavens and the earth (42:11)
13. In Sura Ambiya (21) verse 30 -heavens and earth were joined together and we _____ them,
14. _____ (six days) in Arabic has several meanings including a period of time
15. 41:11 – Then He turned to the heaven, and it was _____
16. Allah tells us in the Quran that He is the one who cause the expansion from the _____ (look up which verse could that be for your own knowledge your lessons mention it)

TEACHER'S COPY

16S										I	N	G	U	L	A	7R				I	T	Y
																				E
																				F
																				L
																				E
																				C
																				4S					P	L	I	T
																				T
																				A
																				8U
										12O					R	I	G	I	N	A	T	O	R
																				S
																				I
																				V
																				E
																				13U										N	R	A	V	E	L	L	10E					D
																				S
1B										E	2T			E	3L			G	E	U	6S			E
I											H
G											O
B											U
A											S
N											A
G											N
										D
																				5P
																				R
																				O
																				14S										I	T	T	A	H	A	Y	Y	A	M
																														E
																														I
																														N
																																								9C					R	E	A	T	O
																																								11C					A	U
																																								15S					M	O	K	E
																																																		E
																																																		17C					O	N	T	I	N	E	N	T	S										