	This module is dedicated to Allah and to man's relationship with his Creator. It covers Tawhid (monotheism) in great depth, discussing the existence of Allah, His unity and His various attributes. It also covers the creation of the	Having created us, Allah continues to nurture and guide us. This module covers the lutf and adalah of Allah, and explores the understanding of the various schools of Islamic theology, especially in relation to the adalah of Allah. It also discusses Divine guidance in the form of nubuwwah . Starting with the creation of human beings on this earth, it focuses on the ancient nations and the early prophets, especially the ulu al-'azm prophets, and the challenges that they faced, lessons that we can learn from their history, and universal values that we derive from their teachings. The Divine Books that were revealed to chosen prophets are also covered, most especially, the final revelation, the Qur'an.  • Adalah of Allah • Dhulm - Tyranny and oppression • Schools of Theology • Nubuwwah	RASULULLAH  This module is a continuation of the concept of Divine Guidance but focuses on the process that the Prophet of Islam used to communicate his Message and to live it. It includes a discussion of his life, his sirah and sunnah, his family, including the immaculate ladies Khadija (a) and Fatimah (a), and his companions. It covers how the Prophet successfully met the enormous challenges that he faced and how he laid the foundation for the spread of Islam within and beyond Arabia. The module also discusses a series of steps that he took to designate his successor so as to ensure the continuation of his Message and assesses his remarkable legacy for all of mankind.  • The Shari'ah • The body: taharah and najasah, bulūgh, adab, food and drink • The soul: understanding nafs, tazkiyat an-nafs,	THE A'IMMAH  This module is a further continuation of the concept of Divine Guidance but focuses on the divinely appointed successors of Rasulullah (s) whose primary responsibility was to safeguard the Message from distortions and misinterpretations.  This module covers the issues related to Imamah and Khilafah, the concept of divine appointment, the qualities of such Imams, the emergence of sects within the Shi'as and azadari as the cornerstone of Shi'a belief.  It also covers the lives of the A'immah of Ahlul Bayt (a) from the first to the eleventh Imam, and explores key concepts relating to Imamah and wilayah.  • Arabia before Islam • Ancestors of Rasulullah (s) • Sirah of Rasulullah (s) • Sayyida Khadija (s)	THE PERIOD OF GHAYBAH  This module is dedicated to the Imam of our time, Imam al-Mahdi (a). It covers the concept of ghaybah, its minor and major phases, the long life of the Imam, the responsibilities of believers in upholding the Message during the ghaybah, and the circumstances under which the Imam will reappear and restore justice and equity. It discusses the necessity of ifithad and taqlid and disbursement of Islamic taxes during the ghaybah, and explores, the lives of some prominent ulama. The module also traces the rise of certain movements within Islam that have had wide-ranging implications.  Concept of Imamah  The A'immah (a)  Companions of the A'immah (a)  The Umayyad dynasty	ROADMAP TO SELF-PURIFICATION  This module examines the distinction between the body and the soul and discusses the roadmap (shariah) sent down by Allah for self-purification in order to attain the company of al-abrar, the righteous ones, in the hereafter. The centrality of niyyah is stressed in all the religious observances. These acts engender taqwa (piety) which involves avoidance of major and minor sins that corrupt the body and the soul, development of moral and ethical traits that identify us as Muslims, and observance of two most important obligations that bring us closer to Allah, namely, sawm and hajj.  Imam al-Mahdi (a) Concept of the Mahdi in Shi'i theology Concept of a saviour in other faiths The ghaybah	This module is a continuation of the roadmap to self-purification but at the societal instead of the individual level. Islam is not just a religion of individuals but also of a community and a global ummah. The social interactions and the attendant responsibilities and rights that Islam mandates can be visualized as a series of concentric circles. The circles begin with the self, and the immediate and extended families, widens to include neighbours and friends and the local community, and embraces the wider community along with the physical environment. Al-amr bil-ma'ruf and annahy 'anil munkar symbolise the social aspect of the community; believers have to promote goodness in society and prevent social evils.  The family unit  Mahramiyyah and Hijab  Marriage and divorce  Sexuality in Islam	This module completes the cycle that began with the creation of Allah and ends with the return to Him. It covers the process of death, the purgatory of barzakh, resurrection at the end of time, accountability on the day of judgement and the outcome of man's actions with the reward of heaven or the punishment of hell.
